A guide to healthy eating based on the Irish Food Pyramid

- 1 Eat a variety of 5 or more different coloured fruit and vegetables every day.
- 2 Wholegrain breads, high fibre cereals, porridge, potatoes, wholewheat pasta and brown rice satisfy hunger and are the best foods to fuel your body. These provide a slow release of energy – choose these in place of white versions.
- 3 Milk, cheese and yoghurt are important for strong bones and teeth. Choose lower fat milks, low-fat / no added sugar yoghurts and yoghurt drinks and reduced fat cheese. Skimmed milk is not suitable for children under 5. Low-fat milk is not suitable for children under 2.
- 4 Protein should be included in the diet each day. Peas, beans and lentils are all excellent sources of protein for vegetarians. Fish, eggs and lean meat are good sources of animal protein.
- 5 Choose healthier cooking methods like steaming, grilling and baking instead of frying foods. Remember that meat can be sealed and browned on a pan without using cooking oil, or using just a drop of oil.
- 6 When buying vegetable oils, go for the healthiest options – olive, sunflower or rapeseed oil – and use sparingly. When baking, standard margarines can be replaced with low-fat margarines.

- 7 Prepare and cook your meals using fresh ingredients. Ready meals and take-aways tend to be high in fat and salt and should not be eaten regularly.
- 8 Portion size is important for all ages – choose smaller portions.
- 9 We need about 8-10 cups or glasses of fluid every day. Water and milk are the best options. Fruit juice and sugary drinks should only be consumed occasionally and should be taken at the same time as meals to prevent damage to teeth.
- 10 Add as little as possible or no salt to your food when cooking or at the table. Why not experiment with flavouring your food with herbs, spices, pepper, garlic or lemon juice instead?
- 11 Limit foods such as chocolate, crisps, biscuits, cake and sugary drinks – these are high in fat, sugar and salt.
- 12 Some of the recipes in this book contain nuts. If you are allergic to nuts or are cooking for a young child, remove the nuts from the recipe.

Keep a Well Stocked Food Cupboard

- A well-stocked food cupboard means you will always have some ingredients to make a meal.
- Plan ahead by adding at least 1 or 2 cupboard foods to your shopping list each week. That way, over time you'll have a well-stocked cupboard.
- Keep supplies of flavourings such as pepper, lemon juice, herbs and spices, curry powder and tomato sauce.

Some suggestions based on the Irish Food Pyramid:

Bread, Cereals, Potatoes, Pasta & Rice

- Rice / pasta / noodles
- Breakfast cereals
- Porridge
- Keep bread in the freezer

Fruit & Vegetables

- Canned vegetables e.g. sweetcorn, tomatoes
- Fruit tinned in its own juice
- Tinned or packet soups

Note – When buying tinned soup always read the label and choose the low salt option

1

Buying food

Purchase food from a reliable source and check the 'best before' and 'use by' dates.

2

Storing food

Put refrigerated foods and frozen foods into your fridge or freezer as soon as possible after buying, taking care not to overload your fridge or freezer.

Keep your fridge clean, tidy and organised. Do not store raw and cooked foods on the same shelf. Place cooked and ready-to-eat foods on a shelf higher than uncooked foods. Place raw meat, fish and poultry in sealed containers on the bottom shelf so they don't touch each other or drip onto other foods. All refrigerated products must be kept at a temperature of between 0 and 5 degrees.

3

Cooking

Cook food thoroughly. Any cooked food that will not be eaten straight away should be covered and refrigerated or frozen within 2 hours.

When re-heating food ensure that it is piping hot all the way through before eating. Food should never be re-heated more than once.

4

Freezing

When putting food into the freezer ensure it is placed in a properly sealed container and labelled with its date, weight and food type. Check these labels later to ensure food has not been stored for longer than recommended by the manufacturer.

Freezers should be maintained at a temperature of -18°C or less and should be in good working order.

Never put hot food or food that has already been frozen into the freezer.

5

Thawing

Frozen foods should be defrosted in the fridge, never use hot water or other artificial means to thaw frozen food. Always make sure that frozen foods are completely thawed especially chicken before cooking (unless the instructions specifically state “cook from frozen”, e.g. frozen vegetables). The freezer should be defrosted on a regular basis to prevent the build-up of ice.

General kitchen hygiene

All kitchen cloths should be washed frequently and replaced regularly at least every 2 days. Use carefully remembering where they were last used. Tea towels should not be used as hand towels or wipe cloths. Surfaces and utensils should be cleaned with hot water and detergent before being used especially those that have been in contact with raw meat, fish, poultry or vegetables.

Keep family pets outside the kitchen. Their food should be kept separate from family food and different utensils and dishes should be used to feed them.

All rubbish should be stored in a rubbish bag or bin and sealed tightly when full. Waste should always be kept covered and rubbish bags should be removed daily to an outdoor bin.

7

Wash your hands thoroughly

- Before preparing food
- Before and after handling raw meat or vegetables
- After coughing, sneezing or using a handkerchief
- After handling a baby's nappy
- After handling pets

Before shopping

Plan!

- Work out your budget for food for the week
- Plan your meals for the week
- Make a shopping list

While shopping

- Keep a running tally of what you are spending – this will help to keep you within budget.
- Stick to the shopping list!
- Don't shop on an empty stomach – you are more likely to be tempted by items you don't need.
- Start with getting the staples of your weekly shop. They can usually be found at the outer aisles.
- Be aware of special deals or offers – it's not good value if you don't need it.

- The more expensive brands are usually displayed at eye level, look high and low for better value products.
- Check out supermarkets' own brands – they can be cheaper and the quality is normally just as good.
- Always check the label for Best Before and Use By dates. Treat Best Before dates as a guideline and Use By dates as a deadline.
- Sign up for loyalty cards and collect loyalty points which will lead to money off future purchases.
- If possible, shop around for the best value available.

Quench It! – Drinks

What we drink makes up an important part of our overall diet. It is important to drink enough fluids during the day. Water and milk are the most suitable drinks as many fruit juices, squashes and soft drinks are high in sugar and this can lead to tooth decay and weight gain.

Stage 1 – Weaning Recipes

All recipes are versatile and can be tried with a variety of fruits and vegetables.

Mashed/Pureed Avocado

Peel ½ an avocado. Mash well so that you have a puree.

Mashed Banana

Mash/blend ripe banana with cooled boiled water, breast or baby's usual milk to make a puree. As baby gets older banana can be mashed without blending or adding milk.

Puree Carrot and Sweet Potato

Wash, peel and chop into small cubes equal amounts of Carrot and Sweet Potato. Cook in steamer or boil for 15-20 minutes with minimum water used. Add water from steamer or pot. Soft blend the vegetables into a puree using blender or liquidiser. Allow to cool a bit and serve warm.

Try about 2 to 6 teaspoons to start. The remainder can be frozen for other meals. Try this recipe with other vegetables too!

Puree Pear

Wash and remove core from 2 pears. Peel and chop into small cubes. Cover with a little boiled water and cook on low heat for about 4 minutes. When soft, blend into puree using blender or liquidizer. Allow to cool a bit and serve warm.

Try about 2 to 6 teaspoons to start. The remainder can be frozen for other meals. Try this recipe with other fruit too!

Banana and Peach Puree

Wash, peel and cut a peach into cubes. Peel and slice a banana. Put sliced banana and peach into saucepan with 30ml of apple juice. Cover the pan and simmer for about 3 minutes. Add 1 tablespoon of baby rice and puree using blender or liquidiser. Allow to cool a bit and serve warm.

Cooking for One

A common dilemma for many people living on their own is how to prepare and enjoy healthy meals in a way that is worth the effort, cost and time. Whether you are a younger student or an older person living on your own, the following section provides some helpful ideas on how to plan and cook meals in smaller amounts.

Smart Shopping

- Make a list and stick to it.
- Never shop on an empty stomach – you may buy food you wouldn't normally buy.
- Own brands are often just as nutritious as big name brands and are generally cheaper.

Bread, Cereals, Potatoes, Pasta & Rice

- Buy small loaves of bread.
- Fresh bread and bread rolls, scones and bagels can all be frozen.
- Par-baked bread rolls are ideal as they can be baked when needed.
- Choose loose potatoes rather than a large heavy bag.
- Whole wheat pasta and brown rice are great alternatives to potatoes.

Fruit & Vegetables

- Buy fresh fruit and vegetables when in season as they are cheaper and tastier.
- Frozen vegetables are just as nutritious as fresh vegetables and require little preparation (do not over cook). They are also very economical as there is no waste.
- Fruit tinned in natural juice is a handy alternative to fresh fruit.

Milk, Yogurt & Cheese

- Supermarket own brands are often cheaper than big name brands and are available in a variety of sizes.

Meat, Poultry, Fish, Eggs, Beans & Nuts

- Butcher's counters are ideal places to buy meat in smaller amounts.
- Large packets of meat or fish on special offer, can be broken into smaller amounts and frozen for later use.
- Tinned fish is economical, comes in small tins ideal for one and requires no cooking.
- Frozen fish or fish fingers are good alternatives to fresh fish.

Dessert foods are delicious and we all enjoy them sometimes. However they are part of the top shelf in the Irish Food Pyramid because they are usually high in fat, sugar and salt. Because of this eating too much dessert regularly can cause overweight and obesity. Being overweight or obese is bad for our health and can cause heart disease, type 2 diabetes and some cancers.

According to the Irish Food Pyramid, the recommended amount is no more than 1 serving per day and ideally not every day. Many of these recipes provide enough servings for a family over several days. A serving is equal to 1 small slice of fruit brack, 1 small cup cake (without icing) or 2 plain biscuits.

We hope you enjoy the following recipes but remember that the serving size is very important!
