10 July 2024

Deputy Robert Troy
Dáil Éireann
Leinster House
Dublin 2

PQ 27502/24

To ask the Minister for Health if he will ensure all public sector pay increases are awarded to members of the National Ambulance Service without further delay.

PQ 27504/24

To ask the Minister for Health to examine anomalies within the HSE with regard to access to further training and professional development (details supplied).

Details: if he will address anomalies within the HSE with regard to access to further training and professional development for various categories of staff. Currently HSE staff (including administration) have such opportunities, which are funded by the HSE, however members of the National Ambulance Service do not have access to the same opportunities. – Robert Troy

Dear Deputy Troy

The Health Service Executive (HSE) National Ambulance Service (NAS) has been requested to reply directly to you in the context of the above Parliamentary Questions, which you submitted to the Minister for response.

PQ2702/24

The Public Sector Pay Award of 1st January 2024 has been paid to all National Ambulance Service employees in line with HSE practices nationally.

PQ2704/24

NAS employees have equal access to all professional development programmes and training scheme's as available to HSE employees. In addition, staff have access to HSEland which is the HSE portal for a wide range of range of online training opportunities.

I hope you find this information helpful

Yours sincerely

Director Human Resources
National Ambulance Service
