

Subject: HSE appoints new National Director of Procurement

Date: January 2025

The HSE are pleased to announce the appointment of Gareth Morton as the new National Director of Procurement within the HSE National Finance and Procurement Division.

Gareth brings to this position 30 years of senior experience in procurement and supply chain management. He is deeply committed to ensuring procurement processes not only deliver value for money but also support frontline staff in delivering exceptional care. He will be instrumental in progressing the strategic procurement journey across the organisation to deliver a best-in-class procurement service. His expertise and leadership will be invaluable in navigating the challenges and opportunities ahead.