

9.00	Welcome	MC Shelley Grey RD
9.15	Opening Address by National HSCP Lead	Jackie Reed, National Health & Social Care Professions Lead & HSCP Advisor to the CEO, HSE
9.40	Compassionate Leadership	Dr Andy Phillips, Regional Executive Officer, HSE South West
10.10	The lived value of working in Partnership	Anne Lawlor, Co-chair HSE Patient Forum/Chairperson 22q11 Ireland Support Group Iolo Eilian, Assistant National Director, Patient and Service User Experience, HSE
10.25	Introducing the Health & Social Care Profession National & Regional Clinical Infrastructure	Jackie Reed, National HSCP Lead & HSCP Advisor to the CEO, HSE Sarah Shanahan, HSCP Regional Integration Development Lead, HSE Olivia Wall, HSCP Regional Practice Education Coordinator, HSE Fiona Melia, HSCP Assistant National Lead Education & Workforce Development, HSE
10.40	Coffee Break	Drink, Discuss, Doodle & Draw

The Impact of Partnership

11.10	Shaping possibilities for the Health and Social Care Professions	Dr Martin Chadwick, Chief Allied Health Professions Officer, Ministry of Health, New Zealand
11.40	Winning Together: Integrating Performance Support with Elite Sport through Collaboration	Prof Sharon Madigan, Head of Performance Nutrition Sarah Jane McDonnell, Head of Rehabilitation, Sport Ireland Institute
12.00	Working together for children's health	Rosemary Kavanagh, Project Coordinator Ruby O'Connor, Psychology Assistant Le Chéile Project, HSE Community Healthcare East
12.10	Working together to enhance the lives of Older People	Lucinda Edge, Clinical Specialist Physiotherapist Aoife Dillon, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Frailty Team, St James's Hospital
12.20	Q&A Panel

12.45	Lunch Break	Digest, Discuss, Doodle and Draw
--------------	--------------------	----------------------------------

Knowledge and Skills for HSCP collaboration

1.45	Break-out Sessions
-------------	---------------------------	--

Enhanced, Advancing and Advanced Practice

2.50	Overview of the Report on the Education and Credentialing Pathway for HSCP Advanced Practice	Dr Ann Coughlan, author of the report on the Education and Credentialing Pathway for HSCP Advanced Practice, Sinead Fitzpatrick, HSCP Development Manager
3.10	Panel Discussion on Enhanced, Advancing and Advanced Practice	Orna Murphy, Clinical Specialist Radiographer Sonographer, Sara Brennan, Clinical Specialist Speech & Language Therapist, Rosie Quinn, Clinical Specialist Physiotherapist/ HSCP Lead Emergency Medicine Programme, Michelle O'Donnell, Clinical Specialist OT
3.40	Chief Executive Officer Address to HSCP	Mr Bernard Gloster, CEO, HSE
4.00	Closing	Ms Jackie Reed, National HSCP Lead

Workshops / Breakout Sessions

1.45-2.45	Clinical Hogan Mezzanine	Research & Digital Health Nally Suite	Practice Education Davin Suite
Facilitator	Dawn Tyner Enhanced Community Care Network Manager, CHN7 North Wicklow, HSE	Mary Clare O’Hara National R&D Programme Manager, HSE National Research and Development	Dr Sinead McMahon Assistant Professor and Director of Clinical Education UCD in conversation with Martin Ryan.
Short Presentations	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Lorna King: “Identifying the Role of First Line Nutritional Information in the Management of Risk of Malnutrition & Probable Sarcopenia on a Community Specialist Team for Older Persons”. Claire McMoreland & Renee Summers: “The Assisted Decision-Making Act Service at the National Rehabilitation Hospital – Working in Partnership Across the Neurorehabilitation Network to Achieve Excellence in Implementing New Human Rights-Based Legislation in Clinical Practice”. Jennifer Kelly: “Working in Partnership and Collaboration: Delivering the first interagency multidisciplinary Team (MDT) in 10 primary schools in North East Inner City (NEIC)”. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Orla McKivitt: “Surface Guided Radiotherapy for Motion Management in Liver Stereotactic Ablative Body Radiotherapy: Steps to Departmental Implementation”. Anna Farren: “A ‘joint’ collaborative in Emergency- Improving rotator cuff injury outcomes”. Eilin Depaor: “Transition from School to Adult Life: Perspectives and experiences of young adults with intellectual disabilities and their families”. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Cillian Purcell: "Working and learning with our community members. Experiences, perceptions and priorities of Allied Health students, practice education staff and community members regarding community engaged placements”. Maeve Lynch: “Piloting Simulation in Practice Education”. John McNally: “To explore running an education group to improve student knowledge, understanding and confidence of collaborative interdisciplinary team working”.
Workshop	National HSCP Innovation Fellows, HSE Spark Innovation Programme “Demystifying Design in Healthcare with HSE Spark – How design can support collaboration in clinical practice for enhanced human centric healthcare”	Niall Halliday, National Chief HSCP Information Officer, HSE & Meabh Smith, Digital Health Clinical Safety Lead, HSE "Assessing and Managing Complexity in Digital Health”.	Lorna Doran: Practice Education Lead Technological University Dublin “Building Competence & Confidence in Practice Education”