

Intern Posts 2014

Available Intern Posts July 2014

Each of the post reference numbers in this list of available posts represents a distinct intern position, showing all rotations through which an individual intern will rotate during their internship.

Applicants should note that health services in Ireland are currently undergoing significant reconfiguration.

All NCHD posts, including intern posts are subject to change in line with prevailing health service priorities.

The post details presented are accurate as at February 2014. However, please note that the nature of some posts may change, and alterations may be made during the year to aspects of individual posts should as supervisors, specialities and location
